

Tuesday, September 4, 2007

Get all arguments of exec-calls

John Rice describes one of the more advanced techniques with dtrace: DTrace: digging into exec'd comand line args. Really usefull, when you try to find out, what the heck this %$"$§ ... fscking program executes and why it doesn't run.

Posted by Joerg Moellenkamp in English, Solaris at 05:44