$141 million deal for Sun

The European Commission awarded a huge contract to Sun: The awarded amount of the market is €95,995,965.67 (approximately $141 million) for all the participating institutions and for its whole period of validity. Of this amount, The European Commission on its own awarded €81,430,488.29 (approximately $120 million).

Nicht schlecht .. weiss man, was das für Server sind ? Niagara oder x86 ?

Ansonsten, falls Du die Werbetrommel für nen alpha test der Indiana beta rühren willst:
