Illness

I'm not in the CEC presentations at the moment. Not because of laziness or gambling ... a sinusitis striked me. That's so typical ... i travelling around the world to the city of sin, to an huge event .... and i'm in my bed to get rid of an illness. I could have this at home as well ....

Hope you are feeling better Joerg. It's all the smoke in the Casinos- I've been living on Sudafed myself all week!
